

June 17, 2024

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to highly recommend Mr. Terrill Vidale and 2Deep Entertainment to service the entertainment needs of your organization. In my role as vice president of student affairs at Alabama A&M University, and now as president of Saint Elizabeth University, I have had the privilege of working with 2Deep Entertainment on various projects, including concerts, lectures, and comedy shows, and I remain impressed by their talent, professionalism, and dedication. Their passion for the craft of entertainment is evident in every performance, and their commitment to excellence sets them apart as a truly outstanding talent in the industry.

Throughout our collaboration, Mr. Vidale has consistently demonstrated a high level of expertise and a keen eye for detail in all aspects of his work. His ability to navigate the complexities of the entertainment industry while catering to the unique needs of higher education institutions is truly commendable. Terrill's deep understanding of the nuances of higher education sets him apart from other vendors and enables him to deliver tailored solutions that meet and exceed our expectations.

What truly sets 2Deep Entertainment apart is their commitment to being a true partner in every sense of the word. Terrill and his team have consistently gone above and beyond to ensure our events are not only successful but also memorable experiences for our students, faculty, staff, and alumni. Their collaborative approach, creativity, and willingness to listen and adapt to our specific needs have made them an invaluable asset to our organization.

In addition to his professional acumen, Terrill's integrity, reliability, and genuine passion for his work shine through in everything he does. It is rare to find a partner who is not only skilled in their craft but also dedicated to building long-lasting relationships based on trust and mutual respect.

I have no hesitation in recommending Mr. Terrill Vidale and 2Deep Entertainment for any entertainment projects or partnerships. Should you require any further information or have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to me.

Thank you,

Gary B. Crosby, Ph.D.
President